Comment. In January 1955, the volume of crude oil shipments from Austria included 2,242 cars with 36,207 tons. This is a slight decrease compared to December 1954, but about 11,000 tons below the monthly average in 1954.

[redacted] It has to be considered however, that the volume of rail traffic is usually higher in January. The apple oil shipments were dispatched to [redacted] station.
